Shrove Tuesday is on Feb 16th this year. Happily, you no longer have to make confession, so why not sin a little and break the New Year diet with a few freshly-made pancakes? Treat the family!
Let It Snow...
A BIG THANKYOU TO ALL WHO BATTLED ON

On behalf of the whole community, SCAN wants to thank those many people who did not just roll over and go back to bed when they saw the worst snow for years.

We may not have had as much snow as some areas, but it was bad enough and roads were very treacherous, so thanks to everyone who braved the weather and kept our lives going on almost as normal.

Everyone will have their own particular heroes; perhaps their carers who saw that they were kept warm and safe; the refuse collectors, bus drivers, postmen (and the Post Office) milkman, paper boys and girls (and Stilton Stores) who kept our regular services operating, or the gritters who worked round the clock to keep our main roads open.

The supermarkets’ home delivery services - Tesco, Sainsbury’s and Ocado - were a lifeline for many and we must also commend Stilton School for its clear bad weather policy and determination to stay open.

If you have any examples of great service please share it with SCAN so that we can publicly thank people.

Memorial Hall

The boiler has now been replaced with a new modern boiler, which should be more efficient. So the Hall is back to normal and accepting bookings.

Cheese Rolling 2010

JANUARY ISSUES

MEMORIAL HALL REFURBISHMENT

Given the urgent need for a new boiler, the Parish Council decided to match the Hall’s own contribution to the refurbishment up to £2500. The new boiler was fitted on January 12th and plans to upgrade the kitchen are being drawn up. Thanks were expressed to Mr and Mrs Walford, who ensured the Hall did not freeze up and spent much time getting quotations and making arrangements for the installation of the new boiler.

VILLAGE SURVEY

Each year members of the Parish Council walk round the village and report any necessary repairs etc. These are then passed onto the relevant Councils. After several months Cambridgeshire County Council have listed the works ordered. Most reported pot holes should now be filled (this does not take into account any recent frost damage), those in Fen Street will be filled, but our request for resurfacing has again been unsuccessful. Bishop Close/Walnut Way junction drainage may be improved. Further investigation is to take place. The raised man-hole covers in Fox Covert will be lowered. The damaged verges on North Street should be reinstated by Anglian Water once the weather improves.

ALLOTMENTS

Representations have been made to Stilton Parish Council for the provision of allotments. In the past there were allotments in Lime Kiln Lane, but those have long since disappeared with successive developments of the A1. Stilton Parish Council would be pleased if new allotments could be found and so are approaching every landowner in the Parish to see if there is a piece of land that could be purchased or rented on a long lease for this purpose.

CONSERVATION AREA

The English Heritage Inspector’s report to Huntingdonshire District Council was also submitted to Stilton Parish Council. The Inspector suggested a review of the boundaries of the Conservation Area to extend it up Church Street. He also pressed the District Council to conduct an appraisal of the present area and to be more active in preventing further unauthorised developments. Stilton Parish Council hopes to meet HDC to look at this report in detail. The Inspector commended the recent work in the Churchyard, but also noted the collapse of some table tombs.

This project, due to start in 2011, will provide 5350 houses on land lying between the A1(M), A15 and Hampton. It will eventually house 12,000 people. There will be a variety of housing types, three primary and one secondary school, five gypsy/traveller pitches, as well as shops and business units. Open spaces, both parks and less formal, will be provided. After looking carefully at the plans Stilton Parish Council has commented on the following issues:

1. The destruction of high quality agricultural land when brownfield sites in the immediate locality remain undeveloped.

2. Education - we queried the need to provide three new primary schools when local schools all faced falling rolls. The impact of a new secondary school on Sawtry College does not seem to have been considered. About 250 pupils now attend Sawtry from Stanground, Yaxley and Farce.

3. Transport - the provision of a Park & Ride facility is proposed; this could affect our present bus service between Peterborough and Huntingdon, to the detriment of people without cars to get them to the new site.

4. Health - Hampton caused great strains on Yaxley Health Centre. We would like assurance that NHS facilities will be provided in a more timely way this time.

5. There seems to be no link-up with any proposed developments to the south of the A15. Stilton Parish Council is seeking clarification from Huntingdon District Council (the relevant authority south of the A15).

Where You Bin?

MEMORIAL HALL WHEELIE-BIN RETURNS

The Memorial Hall wheelie bin disappeared before the New Year; thank you to the person who brought it back! Although we ask village hall users to take their rubbish home with them, there are still times when it is needed so that rubbish is not an eyesore and does not inconvenience neighbours.

The heating is working well after the installation of the new boiler and the hall warms up more quickly and is much cosier. The Committee is very grateful for the Parish Council’s support with this, as the full cost of the new boiler would have seriously depleted finances. This leaves the committee able to continue with the planning for a new kitchen with better facilities, hopefully incorporating a fridge and a dishwasher, to replace the old one which is well past its sell by date.

The cost of hiring the hall is kept to a minimum to make it financially available to all, whether for private functions or regular clubs and activities. For this reason, the Committee has only limited funds at its disposal and must prioritise carefully in order to use these wisely. This makes it all the more important that we all help to look after our only facility of this kind in the village, so that money is not needed for unnecessary repairs or to pay for extra cleaning when the hall is not left ‘in a condition that you would wish to find it’. Generally, the Memorial Hall facilities are very well respected and the Committee would like to thank all those who use it for their care and consideration.

Farewell to The Terrier

JOHN KING - AN APPRECIATION

Stilton has lost one of its ‘local heroes’ in John King, who passed away last month. His contribution to village life - as a churchwarden, consultant groundsman for the Football Club, and stalwart of the Over-60’s Club - will be missed by all who knew him. But not everybody will know that John had also been something of a national hero in his younger days as a professional footballer, playing in the 1949 FA Cup Final.

SCAN carried a feature about John in its millennium issue and his story is well worth repeating.

John joined Leicester City FC in 1942 at the age of 16, turning professional in 1944. At that time he lived in Gidding and was an agricultural worker. This vital ‘reserved occupation’ kept him from military service during the war, but the Football League was suspended, so matches were played between neighbouring teams of players drawn from their local areas. (“Is Your Journey Really Necessary?”)

After the war, normal football resumed. Wages in 1949 were £18 a week for a first team player, £14 for others and £7 for boys - a considerable increase for an agricultural worker.

John stayed at Leicester City until 1952, leaving after two knee operations. He transferred to Kettering, where a third operation ended his professional career in 1954.

The smallest player in the team, John was also one of the most fearless, earning him the nickname of ‘The Terrier’ and a place in the front row as Left Half. He played against many football celebrities, including such great names as Danny Blanchflower and Alf Ramsey.

In 1949, Second Division Leicester had won through to the FA Cup Final against Wolves. With their best striker, Don Revie, in hospital following a concussion in the previous week’s match against First Division Portsmouth, Leicester were very much the underdogs. In spite of a strong performance by John and his team mates, Wolves took the Cup with a 3-1 win.

‘Shrove’ comes from ‘shrine’, which means to make or hear confession. At the start of Lent people would go to Church to confess their sins and to receive absolution - to be shriven.

Pancakes are easy to make, which is why almost every country has its own variation; Scotch pancakes are small and thick. Welshcakes are made with buttermilk and smothered in butter. The French make crêpes for Mardi Gras, and the Russians, blinis.

For over six hundred years, the day before Lent has been marked by the tossing and eating of pancakes. This year Shrove Tuesday (Pancake Day) falls on February 16th. No longer do housewives diligently use up all the eggs, milk and rich foods that were forbidden in Lent, but many families do mark the day with pancakes.

It's not clear when it became popular to add lemon juice and sugar; in earlier times spices and sugar were beaten into the batter.

Today, a good batter mix is:
• 120g sifted plain flour
• 1 egg
• 300ml milk
• pinch of salt

...all beaten up together to make a smooth batter. You can stick to your diet by using skimmed milk and sweetener; gluten-free flour gets accolades on the Internet, while you can even cheat and buy Aunt Bessie's!

The secret of a good pancake is a hot frying pan. Add about a teaspoonful of oil to the pan and heat until it just begins to smoke. Even so, the first pancake won’t usually be very good and is traditionally given to the dog!

Freshly-squeezed lemon juice and caster sugar are the traditional complements to a pancake, but for a bit of variety, why not substitute orange or lime juice instead? Or for a real touch of fine dining, a generous splash of Grand Marnier or Cointreau liqueur is highly recommended!

The day before Shrove Tuesday is the almost forgotten Collop Monday, when all the leftover meat would be cut up small and eaten for breakfast with eggs. This would be mostly bacon or ham. The fat left over was used for making pancakes the next day and Jamie Oliver suggests that this is the origin of the ‘full English’ breakfast.

Other culinary celebrations in February are St Valentine's Day (14th February) and the annual Rhubarb Festival in Wakefield. (Rhubarb Rolling?)
Stilton Gardening Club

At its AGM on the 19th January, Gardening Club members fixed the annual subscription at £5 per person. The monthly meeting charge will be £1 and non-members will pay £2. The meeting day will remain the third Tuesday of the month.

The 2010 programme of meetings and visits will be printed in next month's SCAN. The next meeting is on Tuesday, February 16th when Sue Stephenson will talk on Wildlife Gardening. Sue has been to the Club several times; she is a lively speaker and a knowledgeable gardener. Everyone is welcome.

Why not come along and meet up with a friendly group of villagers who enjoy their gardens? Not all are very skilled or experienced, but all are happy to learn and share.

An Oasis in Need
IMPORTANT NEW LIFELINE FOR RAPE VICTIMS

In January, Cambs police has opened the county’s first Sexual Assault Referral Centre (SARC), in partnership with the NHS and Rape Crisis.

The centre was officially opened by MP Barbara Follett. It’s based at The Oasis, in Rivergate, Peterborough, and is available 24/7 to offer support and medical facilities for victims of rape and sexual assault, by calling 0845 089 6262.

The force set up this partnership project as part of its commitment to ensure that victims of rape and sexual assault get the best service possible and have all the support facilities possible to assist them.

Those who use the facilities are under no obligation to report their incident to police, but any forensic samples taken at the Centre will be kept on record in case they change their minds, or to be used anonymously by officers as intelligence on potential serial offenders.

Victims will also be given the opportunity to report their offence to a specially trained officer (STO).

If you would like more information about the Centre visit the force’s website: www.cambs.police.uk/spotlights/sarc.asp or the Oasis website: www.oasiscentre.org

Take a Number

On a more prosaic note, Cambridgeshire Constabulary has recently seen an increase in the number of reports of stolen number plates. Most of them will be used on other vehicles to avoid congestion charges or speeding fines and/or to commit criminal activity, including thefts of fuel and other crimes and suspicious incidents.

Vehicle owners can reduce the risk of their number plates being stolen by replacing the normal fixing screws with special anti-theft number plate screws. These are available from most vehicle parts shops and suppliers or via the Internet.

For further crime prevention or security advice, you can contact the Crime Reduction Unit at Huntingdon Police Station on 01480 415512 or 01480 415514, or visit the following websites:
